- Its predecessor, the League of Nations, created by the Treaty of Versailles in 1919 was disbanded in 1946.

- UN System is made up of the
  1. Main Organs established by the Charter of the United Nations,
  2. Specialized agencies provided for in Article 57 of the Charter &
  3. Funds & Programmes established by the General Assembly under its authority derived from Article 22 of the Charter.

Indian Members in the UN

- An Indian Justice Dalveer Bhandari was re-elected as a judge to the International Court of Justice.
- International law expert Neeru Chadha was elected to the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea.

Main Organs

1.1 UN-General Assembly

- It is the main deliberative organ and composed of all member states, each of which has one vote.
- The mandate of UNGA is to discuss, debate, and make recommendations on subjects pertaining to international peace and security, including development, disarmament, human rights, international law, and the peaceful arbitration of disputes between nations.
- It considers reports from the other four organs of the United Nations, assesses the financial situations of member states, and approves the UN budget, its most concrete role.
- Sessions - The assembly meets in Regular session (annually from Sep to Dec), Special session and Emergency Special Session (within 24 hours) at the request of UN security council or majority of members or one-member state if the majority of states concur.
- Appointments by UNGA - It appoints Secretary General of UN based on the recommendations given by Security Council.
- General Assembly elects Non-Permanent members in Security Council and elects Members for Social and Economic Council.
- Along with Security Council, General Assembly elects Judges to International Court of Justice.
- Membership - There are 193 UN member states, each with a vote in the General Assembly.
- The assembly's president changes with each annual session and is elected by the body itself.
- The membership can be contentious. Taiwan has been denied UN membership for more than two decades due to objections from China. Palestine's status has also been controversial.

- At the 2012 General Assembly passed a resolution to upgrade Palestine from a non-member observer entity to non-member observer state.
- Palestine and Vatican City are the United Nations' two non-member observer states, which have the right to speak at assembly meetings but cannot vote on resolutions.
- Assembly Actions - Decision on important questions such as those on peace and security, UN budget, admission, suspension and expulsion of members to various organs of UN requires special majority.
- Make recommendations on any matters within the scope of the UN, except matters of peace and security that are under consideration by the Security Council.
- In 1948, it promulgated the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which contained 30 articles outlining global standards for human rights.
- In 1950, it initiated "Uniting for Peace" resolution which states that if UNSC fails to exercise its primary responsibility" for maintaining international peace and security, UNGA should take up the matter itself and urge collective action.
- In 2000, it set forth the Millennium Development Goals (MDG), a time bound and measurable targets for reducing poverty, halting the spread of HIV/AIDS, and improving access to primary education followed by Sustainable Development Goals (SDG).
- It has the power to censure states for violating UN Charter principles.
- In 2012, UNGA voted to denounce the Syrian government for atrocities since the start of the Syrian uprising in March 2011.
- In 2014, Crimea's referendum to leave Ukraine and join Russia was held invalid by the UNGA by adopting a nonbinding resolution. It also held that Russia's annexation of Crimea is illegal.
- UN budget - United Nation is funded by its member states through compulsory and voluntary contributions.
- The size of each state's compulsory contribution depends mainly on its economic strength, though its state of development and debt situation are also considered.
- Member countries can make voluntary contribution to UNESCO, WHO, UN Programmes and Funds such as Office of the UN High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) and the UN Children's Fund (UNICEF).

Adoption of Resolution

- Resolution in GA can be adopted in two ways i.e reaching consensus among member states and by voting on the resolution.
- Consensus - All member states have agreed to adopt the text of a draft resolution without taking a vote.
- Consensus is not reached, even if just one Member State requests a vote.
- It is important to note that consensus does not mean that all Member States agree on every word in the draft resolution and they still have reservation about certain parts.
- Thus, the viewpoint of every member countries is taken into consideration. This process is inclusive in nature.
- Voting - It need to get a simple majority to agree on the text of a resolution.
- There is no need to care about the perspectives of the minority who disagree.
- Those countries that did not vote in favour of a resolution on a particular agenda item will be less likely to implement the actions on an agenda item that are recommended in a resolution, hence it is divisive.

Recent developments

- UNGA held a first ever high-level meeting on the fight against Tuberculosis, under the theme "United to end Tuberculosis: an urgent global response to a global epidemic".
- The special session aims at accelerating efforts in ending TB and reaching all affected people with prevention and care.
- The declaration marks the endorsement of the Resolution by all Member States of the UN.
- India has pledged to eliminate the disease five years before the UN Development Goal of 2030.

- Venezuela and Libya have been suspended from voting in the UN General Assembly for the third time in 3 years because of millions of dollars in unpaid dues to the world body.

1.2 United Nations Security Council

- It has primary responsibility for the maintenance of International peace and security.
- The council has 15 members: 5 Permanent - US, UK, Russia, France & China and 10 members elected by the General Assembly for 2-year terms.
- The main criterion for eligibility is contribution “to the maintenance of international peace and security”, often defined by financial or troop contributions to peacekeeping operations or leadership on matters of regional security.
- Equitable geographical distribution is also taken in to account for membership - African Group (3), Asia-Pacific Group (2), Latin American and Caribbean Group (2), Western European and Others Groups (WEOG)(2)and Eastern European Group (1).
- Arab states are given 1 seat alternately drawn from either Africa’s quota or Asia’s by informal agreement.
- Turkey and Israel, which has never served on the council, is represented in WEOG.
- Current non-permanent members (with end of term) are Côte d’Ivoire (2019), Equatorial Guinea (2019), Kuwait (2019), Peru (2019), Poland (2019), Belgium (2020), Dominican Republic (2020), Germany (2020), Indonesia (2020) and South Africa (2020).
- While other organs of the UN can only make recommendations to member states, the Security Council has the power to make binding decisions on member states.
- All the members have one vote and permanent members have veto power.
- Decisions on procedural matters should have vote of at least 9 of the 15 members and decision on substantive matters require nine votes and the absence of negative vote by any of the 5 permanent members.
- Veto powers of P5 countries have been used most frequently by Russia, blocking more than 100 resolutions since the council’s founding.
- Most recently, in 2018, the U.S vetoed a resolution condemning Israel for Palestinian civilian deaths during border protests in Gaza.
- The presidency of the Security Council rotates alphabetically each month.
- G4 Nations - 4 countries bids for permanent seats in UNSC. They are Brazil, Germany, India, and Japan.
- Uniting for Consensus (Coffee Club) - These are group of countries who are opposing the expansion of permanent seats in the UNSC under the leadership of Italy.
- Members - Italy, Spain, Malta, San Marino, Pakistan, South Korea, Canada, Mexico, Argentina, Colombia & Turkey.
- Despite drastic changes in geopolitics and international relations the Council has not been reformed yet.

Proposed Reforms in UNSC

- The demands for reform of the UNSC is based on five key issues:
  1. Categories of membership (permanent, non-permanent).
  2. The question of the veto held by the five permanent members.
  3. Regional representation.
  4. The size of an enlarged Council and its working methods.
  5. The relationship between Security Council and General Assembly.
- Notably, any reform of the Security Council would require the agreement of at least two-thirds of UN member states.
- Importantly, the agreement of all the permanent members of the UNSC enjoying the veto right is also required.

Recent Developments

- UNSC has recently adopted a Resolution 2427 aimed at a framework for mainstreaming protection, rights, well-being and empowerment of children throughout the conflict cycle.
- The resolution won unanimous approval from all the members of the council.
- It condemns the recruitment and use of children by parties to armed conflict as well as their re-recruitment, killing and maiming, rape and other forms of sexual violence, and abductions
- It also condemns attacks against schools and hospitals and the denial of humanitarian access by parties to armed conflict.
- It demands that all relevant parties immediately put an end to such practices and take special measures to protect children.

1.3 UN Economic & Social Council

- It is the principal organ that guides sustainable development policies and coordinates the activities of several UN units and organisations working on development and social and economic issues.
- It is the principle body for the implementation of internationally agreed development goals.
- It has 54 members, which are elected by the General Assembly for a three-year term.
- Seats in the council are allocated based on geographical representation. 11 of them are allotted to Asian states.
- For the nations to be elected as members of ECOSOC for a three-year term, it needs 2/3rd majority of UN General Assembly votes.
- Each member of the council has one vote and generally voting in the council is by simple majority.
- The president is elected for a one-year term.

India & ECOSOC

- In 2017, UNGA re-elected India to another 3-year term starting from Jan,2018 (as its previous term was set to expire in 2017).
- India received backing of the Asian and Pacific group of nations and secured 183 of the 188 votes to serve again.
- In 2018, India got elected to various crucial subsidiary bodies working under ECOSOC such as
  - i. Committee on Non-Governmental Organisations for a term of 2019-2023 and India got the highest number of votes followed by Pakistan,
  - ii. Commission on Population and Development for a term of 2018 – 2021,
  - iii. Commission for social development for a term of 2018-2022,
  - iv. Commission on crime prevention and criminal justice for a term of 2019 – 2021,
  - v. Council to the Executive Board of the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), United Nations Office for Project Services (UNOPS) for a term of 2019-2021,
  - vi. Executive Board of the United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women (UN-Women) for a term of 2019-2021.
- Election to committee on NGO is considered as crucial, because it scrutinises the NGOs applying for consultative status with ECOSOC and can recommend or block them.

1.4 Secretariat

- It undertakes the day-to-day work of the UN, administering the programmes and policies of the organization.
- It is headed by the Secretary-General, assisted by a staff of international civil servants worldwide.

1.5 International Court of Justice

- It is the principal judicial organ of the United Nations also called the “World Court”.
- It is seated at the Peace Palace, Hague (Netherlands), and the only principal organ of UN to be not located in New York.

- It settles legal disputes between states and gives advisory opinions to the UN and its specialized agencies.
- It hears cases related to war crimes, illegal state interference, ethnic cleansing, and other issues.
- It is presided over by 15 judges elected to 9 year terms by the UNGA and the UNSC from a list of people nominated by the national groups in the Permanent Court of Arbitration.
- A candidate needs to get an absolute majority in both the chambers i.e. the UNGA and the UNSC.
- 5 judges are elected every 3 years to ensure continuity within the court and are eligible for re-election.
- No two judges can be the nationals of the same country.
- Of the 15 judges, the composition is mandated to be as follows -
  - 3 from Africa
  - 2 from Latin America and the Caribbean
  - 3 from Asia
  - 5 from Western Europe and other states
  - 2 from Eastern Europe
- The President and Vice-President are elected by secret ballot to hold office for 3 years.
- The P5 members of the UNSC always have a judge on the Court.
- The exception was China, which did not have a judge on the Court from 1967 to 1985 because it did not put forward a candidate.
- Judges may deliver joint judgments or give their own separate opinions.
- The Court settles legal disputes between nations only and not between individuals, organizations and private enterprises in accordance with international law.
- The Court can only hear a dispute when requested to do so by one or more States. It cannot deal with a dispute of its own motion.
- If a country does not wish to take part in a proceeding it does not have to do so, unless required by special treaty provisions. Once a country accepts the Court's jurisdiction, it must comply with its decision.
- Decisions and Advisory Opinions are by majority, and, in the event of an equal division, the President's vote becomes decisive always have a judge on the Court.
- Other existing international thematic courts, such as the International Criminal Court (ICC) are not under the umbrella of the ICJ and it is legally and functionally independent from United Nations.
- India and ICJ - An Indian Justice Dalveer Bhandari was re-elected as a judge to the ICJ.
- India recently won the plea against Pakistan to grant counsellor access to Indian national Kulbhushan Jadhav and ICJ has directed to Pakistan to stop carrying out the execution of Jadhav.

Recent Developments

- In its recent advisory opinion on Chagos Islands issue, it stated that the UK Government is “under an obligation” to end its administration of the Chagos Archipelago “as rapidly as possible”
- It calls the continued administration of the archipelago “unlawful,” and “a wrongful act.”
- The Chagos Islands were retained by the UK during negotiations over independence for the Indian Ocean island of Mauritius, which came to fruition in 1968.
- The islands have since been used for defence purposes by the UK and the United States, which established a military base on the island of Diego Garcia.
- In another case, ICJ ordered the United States to lift some of the economic sanctions it has imposed on Iran, which effect the importation of humanitarian goods and products, as well as the safety of civilian aircraft.

1.6 Trusteeship Council

- It was formed to provide international supervision for 11 Trust Territories that had been placed under the administration of Member States, and to prepare the territories for self-government and independence.

- By 1994, all Trust Territories had attained self-government or independence, with the last nation being Palau.
- So, UN suspended its operation on 1994, and it continues to exist only on paper.
- By a resolution adopted in May 1994, the Council amended its rules of procedure to drop the obligation to meet annually and agreed to meet as occasion required by its decision or the decision of its President, or at the request of a majority of its members or the General Assembly or the Security Council.
- Its future role and existence remain uncertain.

Specialised Agencies

Specialized Agencies are legally independent international organizations with their own rules, membership, organs and financial resources, which were brought into relationship with the United Nations through negotiated agreements.

1.7 World Bank Group

- The World Bank Group (WBG) is a family of five international organizations that make leveraged loans to developing countries.
- The organizations are,
  1. International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD).
  2. International Development Association (IDA).
  3. International Finance Corporation (IFC).
  4. Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency (MIGA).
  5. International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID).
- UN and World Bank Group - IBRD, IFC and IDA are Specialized Agencies of the UN. ICSID and MIGA are not Specialized Agencies
- While five institutions have their own country membership, governing boards, and articles of agreement, they work as one to serve our partner countries.
- The IBRD and IDA provide loans at preferential rates to member countries, as well as grants to the poorest countries.
- IFC, MIGA, and ICSID focus on strengthening the private sector in developing countries by providing financing, technical assistance, political risk insurance, and settlement of disputes to private enterprises, including financial institutions.
- IFC established in 1956, provides various forms of financing without sovereign guarantees, primarily to the private sector.
- ICSID, established in 1966, works with governments to reduce investment risk.
- MIGA, established in 1988, provides insurance against certain types of risk, including political risk, primarily to the private sector.
- Each member countries in the organisation get voting power according to the shares held in the organisation's capital.
- Governing Bodies - The two main governing bodies are Board of Governors and Board of Directors.
- BOG are appointed by world bank members and meets annually in joint meeting with Board of Governors of IMF.
- There is a separate BOD for IBRD, IDA, IFC and MIGA.
- India is a member of four of the five constituents of the World Bank Group except ICSID.
- India is one of the founder members of IBRD, IDA and IFC.

World Bank

- IBRD and IDA are collectively known as World Bank, that provides loans to countries for capital programs.
- They were created at the 1944 Bretton Woods Conference, along with the International Monetary Fund (IMF).
- It is like a cooperative, made up of 189 member countries.
- These member countries or shareholders, are represented by a Board of Governors (BOG), who are the ultimate policymakers at the World Bank.

- The aim of World Bank is to
  1. End extreme poverty - reducing share of global population that lives in extreme poverty to 3 percent by 2030,
  2. Promote shared prosperity - by increasing the incomes of the poorest 40 percent of people in every country and
  3. Provide sustainable development.
- All decisions of World Bank will be guided to the promotion of foreign investment and international trade and to the facilitation of capital investment.
- Together with the World Health Organization, the World Bank administers the International Health Partnership (IHP+).
- IHP+ is a group of partners committed to improving the health of citizens in developing countries.
- Clean Air Initiative (CAI) is a World Bank initiative to advance innovative ways to improve air quality in cities through partnerships in selected regions of the world by sharing knowledge and experiences.
- Reports - Doing Business Report, Global Economic Prospects, Global Financial Development Report, International Debt Statistics, World Development Report, World Development Indicators, Poverty and Shared Prosperity.

International Bank for Reconstruction & Development

- IBRD is a global development cooperative owned by 189-member countries and it is the largest development bank in the world.
- It is headquartered in Washington, D.C.
- It was established in 1944 with the mission of financing the reconstruction of European nations devastated by World War II.
- It supports the World Bank Group's mission by providing loans, guarantees, risk management products, and advisory services to middle-income and creditworthy low-income countries.
- IBRD finances investments across all sectors and provides technical support and expertise at each stage of a project.
- IBRD places special emphasis on supporting lower-middle-income countries as they move up the economic chain, graduating from IDA to become clients of IBRD.
- It will also help coordinating responses to regional and global challenges.
- The Bank's member governments are shareholders which contribute paid-in capital and have the right to vote on its matters.
- In addition to these contributions, the IBRD acquires most of its capital by borrowing on international capital markets through bond issues.
- Each member state of IBRD should also be a member of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and only members of IBRD are allowed to join other institutions within the Bank (such as IDA).

1.8 International Monetary Fund

- IMF was conceived at a UN conference in Bretton Woods in July 1944.
- The 44 countries at that conference sought to build a framework for economic cooperation to avoid a repetition of the competitive devaluations that had contributed to the Great Depression of the 1930s.
- With the membership of 189 countries, the Fund's mandate was updated in 2012 to include all macroeconomic and financial sector issues that bear on global stability.
- A core responsibility of the IMF is to provide loans to member countries experiencing actual or potential balance of payments problems.
- Unlike development banks, the IMF does not lend for specific projects.
- The SDR is an international reserve asset, created by the IMF in 1969 to supplement its member countries' official reserves.
- Gold remains an important asset in the reserve holdings of several countries, and the IMF is still one of the world's largest official holders of gold.

- Unlike the General Assembly of the United Nations, where each country has one vote, decision making at the IMF was designed to reflect the relative positions of its member countries in the global economy.
- Reports - World economic outlook, Global Financial stability report.

1.9 International Labor Organization

- It was created in 1919 by the Versailles Peace Treaty ending World War I.
- After the demise of the League of Nations, the ILO became the first specialized agency associated with the UN.
- The organization has 187 of the 193 UN member states plus the Cook Islands (a nation in the South Pacific, with political links to New Zealand).
- Its secretariat is in Geneva, Switzerland.
- It is responsible for drawing up and overseeing international labour standards.
- Unlike other United Nations specialized agencies, the International Labour Organization has a tripartite governing structure – representing governments, employers, and workers.
- ILO designates some member countries as nations of “Chief Industrial Importance”.
- The designated nations are Brazil, China, France, Germany, India, Italy, Japan, the Russian Federation, the United Kingdom and the United States.
- In 1988, the international labour conference adopted the “Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work”.
- The declaration aims to eliminate all forms of forced or compulsory labour, abolition of child labour and the elimination of discrimination in employment and occupation.
- It publishes Global Wage report.

Core Conventions of the ILO

- The 8 Core Conventions of the ILO (also called fundamental/human rights conventions) are:
  1. Forced Labour Convention (No. 29)
  2. Abolition of Forced Labour Convention (No.105)
  3. Equal Remuneration Convention (No.100)
  4. Discrimination (Employment Occupation) Convention (No.111)
  5. Minimum Age Convention (No.138)
  6. Worst forms of Child Labour Convention (No.182)
