World Bank slashed global growth forecast for 2022 to 3.2% from 4.1%

The World Bank has cut the global growth forecast for 2022 to 3.2% from 4.1% due to the impacts of Russia's invasion of Ukraine.

The reason for lowering the projection is that people are facing reduced commercial activity and trade, and the debt crisis and currency depreciations have placed a heavy burden on the poor.

The world is also facing reversals in development in education, health and gender equality.
