Immigration and Foreigners Bill, 2025: Key Provisions, Impact and Significance

In a significant move to modernize India's immigration framework, Minister of State for Home Affairs, Nityanand Rai, introduced the Immigration and Foreigners Bill, 2025 in the Parliament. The proposed bill aims to replace colonial-era laws with a more structured and stringent immigration system to enhance national security, regulate foreign nationals, and introduce stricter penalties for violations of entry and stay conditions.

Existing Laws to be Replaced

The bill proposes to repeal four existing laws that currently govern India's immigration and foreigner management system. These laws are:

- The Passport (Entry into India) Act, 1920
- The Registration of Foreigners Act, 1939
- The Foreigners Act, 1946
- The Immigration (Carriers' Liability) Act, 2000

The government justifies the introduction of this new bill by stating that it aims to remove overlapping provisions, ensure a simplified legal framework, and provide better control over foreign nationals in the country.

Key Provisions of the Immigration and Foreigners Bill, 2025

1. Entry Restrictions for Foreigners

The bill specifies that any foreigner who poses a threat to national security, sovereignty, or the integrity of the nation will be denied entry into India or will not be permitted to stay in the country. This provision reinforces India's stance on tightening border security and immigration control.

2. Mandatory Registration and Movement Restrictions

Under the new bill, foreign nationals will be required to register upon arrival in India. Additional regulations include:

- Restriction of movement within India, preventing access to protected and restricted areas without prior permission.
- Limiting name changes and identity modifications.
- Educational institutions, hospitals, and nursing homes will be obligated to report foreign nationals' presence to immigration authorities.

3. Stricter Penalties for Violations

The bill introduces severe punishments for foreigners who violate entry and stay conditions in India. The penalties include:

- Illegal entry without a valid passport or visa: Up to 5 years of imprisonment and a fine of ₹5 lakh.
- Usage of forged documents: Jail term of 2 to 7 years, with fines ranging from ₹1 lakh to ₹10 lakh.
- Overstaying or violating visa conditions: Up to 3 years of imprisonment and a fine of ₹3 lakh.
- Trespassing in restricted areas: Strict legal action, including detention and deportation.

4. Liability of Transport Carriers

The bill places significant responsibility on transport carriers, including airlines, shipping companies, and other means of transportation. Key provisions include:

- Carriers transporting foreigners without valid documents will be subject to a fine of up to ₹5 lakh.
- If a foreigner is denied entry into India, the carrier will be responsible for their immediate removal.
- Failure to comply could lead to seizure of the transport vehicle if penalties are not paid.

5. Powers of Immigration Officers

The bill enhances the authority of immigration officials by granting them the power to:

- Arrest individuals without a warrant if they are found violating immigration laws.
- Regulate the movement and stay of foreigners.
- Restrict exit from India if a foreigner's presence is required for investigation or security purposes.

6. Advance Passenger Data Requirement

To bolster security measures, airlines and vessels will be required to share passenger and crew data with immigration authorities before arrival in India. This provision aims to:

- Identify potential security threats in advance.
- Enable real-time monitoring of incoming and outgoing travelers.

Impact and Significance of the Immigration and Foreigners Bill, 2025

1. Strengthening National Security

The bill aligns with India's objective of ensuring stronger border control and monitoring foreign nationals to prevent illegal immigration, espionage, and terrorism-related activities.

2. Simplification and Modernization of Immigration Laws

By replacing four separate laws with a comprehensive legal framework, the government aims to remove legal ambiguities and create a streamlined system that is easier to implement and enforce.

3. Better Control Over Foreigners in India

Mandatory registration, stricter penalties, and movement restrictions will ensure that foreign nationals comply with Indian laws and do not pose a threat to national security and public order.

4. Increased Accountability of Transport Carriers

By holding airlines, shipping companies, and other carriers accountable, the bill seeks to prevent human trafficking, illegal immigration, and visa violations.

Statistics on Foreign Visitors to India

According to the latest government data, a total of 9,840,321 foreigners visited India between April 1, 2023, and March 31, 2024. The new bill is expected to have a significant impact on the way India regulates and manages such large numbers of foreign nationals.

Top 10 Largest Arms Importing Countries (2020–2024): SIPRI Report

The latest report from the Stockholm International Peace Research Institute (SIPRI) has unveiled the top 10 largest arms-importing countries from 2020 to 2024. A key highlight of this report is the emergence of Ukraine as the world's largest arms importer, surpassing all other nations due to its ongoing war with Russia. Additionally, India continues to be a dominant player, ranking as the second-largest arms importer globally.

This period has witnessed a significant increase in arms imports across European nations, a trend largely influenced by geopolitical conflicts, particularly the Russia-Ukraine war. The global arms trade continues to be dominated by a few major suppliers, with the United States leading in arms exports.

Global Surge in Arms Imports

According to SIPRI, European countries have significantly increased their arms imports, with a staggering 155% rise between 2020-2024 compared to the previous period (2015-2019). This surge is primarily driven by the Russia-Ukraine war, prompting nations to bolster their defense capabilities. Prior to 2022, Ukraine imported very few major arms, but the war with Russia, which began in February 2022, led to a massive spike in arms imports in 2023 and 2024. At least 35 countries have supplied major arms to Ukraine as part of military aid, solidifying its position as the world's top arms importer.

The World’s Largest Arms Importers (2020-2024)

The report identifies the top five largest arms importers, which together account for 35% of global arms imports among 162 nations classified by SIPRI.

Top 10 Arms Importing Countries (2020-2024)

Rank	Country	Share of Global Arms Imports (2020-24)	Top 3 Supplier Countries
1	Ukraine	8.8%	USA, Germany, Poland
2	India	8.3%	Russia, France, Israel
3	Qatar	6.8%	USA, Italy, UK
4	Saudi Arabia	6.8%	USA, Spain, France
5	Pakistan	4.6%	China, Netherlands, Türkiye
6	Japan	3.9%	USA, UK, Germany
7	Australia	3.5%	USA, Spain, Norway
8	Egypt	3.3%	Germany, Italy, France
9	United States	3.1%	UK, France, Israel
10	Kuwait	2.9%	USA, Italy, France

Key Observations

- Ukraine emerged as the largest arms importer due to the Russia-Ukraine war.
- India, despite being the second-largest importer, has witnessed a decline in arms imports.
- European countries saw a 155% increase in arms imports, driven by security concerns.
- The United States remains the dominant supplier, with Russia, France, and China playing significant roles in global arms trade.

India: The Second-Largest Arms Importer

India’s Share in Global Arms Imports

India accounted for 8.3% of total global arms imports between 2020 and 2024, making it the second-largest importer after Ukraine. However, this marks a 9.3% decline compared to the 2015-2019 period. This decline is attributed to India’s efforts to reduce dependency on foreign weapons by focusing on domestic defense manufacturing.

Key Suppliers to India

India’s top three arms suppliers during this period were:

1. Russia – Constituting 36% of India’s total arms imports.
2. France – Increasingly becoming a key defense supplier.
3. Israel – Strengthening defense ties with India.

Additionally, India has been diversifying its sources by engaging with Western nations like the USA to ensure strategic independence and reduce reliance on a single country.

India’s Shift Towards Self-Reliance in Defense

The decline in India’s arms imports is not due to a reduction in defense needs but rather a reflection of its growing indigenous defense manufacturing capabilities. The Indian government has introduced initiatives such as:

- ‘Make in India’ and ‘Atmanirbhar Bharat’ (Self-Reliant India) initiatives.
- Defense Procurement Policy (DPP) reforms to encourage local production.
- Increased investment in domestic defense technology to reduce dependence on imports.

These efforts have led to India manufacturing its own fighter jets, missiles, and naval warships, decreasing reliance on foreign suppliers.

Global Trends in Arms Imports

Geopolitical Factors Influencing Arms Trade

Several key geopolitical factors have shaped the global arms trade from 2020 to 2024:

- Russia-Ukraine War (2022-Present): The conflict has driven Ukraine’s demand for weapons, with Western nations supplying arms in large numbers.
- China’s Growing Influence in Asia: Countries like India, Japan, and Australia are strengthening their military capabilities to counterbalance China’s military expansion.
- Middle East Conflicts: Nations like Saudi Arabia, Qatar, and Kuwait remain key importers due to regional security concerns.
- European Military Buildup: Rising tensions with Russia have led to increased defense spending in Europe.

Finland Tops the World Happiness Rankings for the Eighth Consecutive Year

Finland has once again secured its position as the world's happiest country for the eighth consecutive year, according to the latest global happiness rankings. The study, conducted by the Wellbeing Research Centre at the University of Oxford in collaboration with Gallup and the UN Sustainable Development Solutions Network, revealed that the United States has dropped to its lowest-ever ranking at 24th place. The rankings are based on people's self-assessment of their quality of life, highlighting factors such as social trust, economic stability, and life expectancy.

Global Happiness Rankings: Finland Remains on the Top

The 2024 World Happiness Report has reaffirmed Finland's position as the happiest country in the world. Other Nordic nations, including Denmark, Iceland, Sweden, and the Netherlands, rounded out the top five.

The rankings are derived from individuals' responses to survey questions about their overall life satisfaction. Despite Finland's geographical proximity to Russia and increasing geopolitical tensions, its citizens continue to report high levels of happiness.

Factors Influencing Happiness Rankings

The happiness rankings are based on a three-year average of a population's self-assessment of life quality. The factors considered in the ranking include:

- Gross Domestic Product (GDP) per capita – Economic stability contributes significantly to life satisfaction.
- Healthy life expectancy – Access to quality healthcare and a longer lifespan improve well-being.
- Social support – Having a reliable network of family and friends enhances happiness.
- Freedom to make life choices – A sense of autonomy and personal control is linked to higher life satisfaction.
- Generosity – Acts of kindness and donations contribute positively to societal happiness.
- Perceptions of corruption – Lower levels of corruption improve trust in government institutions and social systems.

The Role of Social Trust in Happiness

One of the key findings of the 2024 report is the strong correlation between happiness and belief in the kindness of others. The report highlights that people who believe in social trust—such as the likelihood of someone returning a lost wallet—tend to experience greater happiness.

Nordic countries, which consistently rank at the top in happiness indices, also excel in social trust metrics. This suggests that interpersonal trust and societal stability play an essential role in overall well-being.

United States Sees a Decline in Happiness

The United States, which ranked 13th in 2016, has now dropped to 24th place, marking its lowest position ever in the global rankings. Experts attribute this decline to increasing income inequality, political divisions, and social unrest.

Similarly, the United Kingdom also fell to its lowest ranking since 2017. Researchers have observed that while happiness disparities between countries have remained stable, happiness inequality within countries has increased by about 25% over the past two decades.

Geopolitical Challenges and Their Impact on Happiness

Despite facing increased geopolitical tensions due to its proximity to Russia, Finland has continued to rank as the happiest nation. Over recent years, Finland and other European countries have experienced a rise in cyberattacks, GPS jamming, and suspected sabotage of critical infrastructure in the Baltic Sea. However, these external challenges have not significantly impacted the Finnish people's reported happiness levels.

India's happiness ranking has improved steadily, reaching 118th in the World Happiness Report 2025, up from 126th in 2023 and 139th in 2020. Key factors include economic growth, better corruption perception (rank improved from 71 in 2022 to 56 in 2024), and rising personal freedom (ranked 23rd in 2024, highest in five years). India's GDP per capita rank also improved to 93rd in 2024. However, it still lags behind Pakistan (109th) and Nepal (92nd) due to lower social support and economic inequality.
